

Mike Whitehair

Mike Whitehair is an RN who currently works part-time for Contra Costa Public Health in the communicable disease division. He is one of the local health department participants in the CDPH-HAI CRE Collaborative. Mike retired from Sutter Delta Medical Center in 2015 after 18 plus years of service. The last 10 years working as an Infection Preventionist. He has worked in acute care, long-term care, and home health over the years. Mike graduated from Contra Costa College with his RN degree in 1985, and received a Masters of Nursing Science from UCSF in 1992.