

Lorna Van Ackeren

Community Liaison and Marketing Director

Lorna is the Community Liaison and Marketing Director for Hillendale Home Care, a family owned non-medical home care organization providing personnel assistance and compassionate care for those in need of help with activities of daily living. Lorna's educational background is in Gerontology and Social Welfare, and worked for the California Department of Aging for several years distributing Older Americans Act funding.

Currently, she's involved in the community as an appointed member to the CCC Advisory Council on Aging, Commissioner for Pleasant Hill Commission on Aging, board member for Meals on Wheels CCC, board member for Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce, and a member of the Senior Mobility Action Council and East Bay Veteran's Community partnership. Lorna teaches a class at Hillendale Home Care called "Family Caregiver Boot Camp" that's designed to help family members gain confidence in their caregiving skills as they navigate the journey of taking care of a loved one.
