

Mariana Moore

Director, Ensuring Opportunity Campaign

Mariana Moore serves as Director of the Ensuring Opportunity Campaign to End Poverty in Contra Costa, a cross-sector initiative that engages residents, elected officials, social sector organizations, businesses, labor, policy makers, academia, faith-centered organizations and philanthropy in a collective effort to eliminate poverty in our community through policy and systems change.

Before joining Ensuring Opportunity, Mariana served as director of the Human Services Alliance of Contra Costa, a coalition of community-based organizations that work in partnership with local government to meet the needs of low-income residents.

She previously served as a consultant to the social sector, providing strategic counsel, organizational development, executive coaching and capacity-building services to organizations throughout the Bay Area. She has served as an executive director, development director and board member for numerous organizations in the social sector and in higher education. She is past board chair of the Diablo Valley College Foundation and more recently of LeaderSpring, a training institute for Bay Area social sector leaders.

Website: www.endpovertycc.org